¹ When two or more justices co-authored a separate opinion, I credited each of them. In State ex rel. Polar Ware Co. v. Muus, Justice Fairchild wrote the majority opinion—but he also indicated that he dissented from one portion of it. Two justices, Wilkie and Currie, did not participate. I have classified this as a 4-1 rather than a 5-0 decision and will credit Justice Fairchild with both a majority opinion and a dissenting opinion.
