&lt;sup>1</sup> As a result of rounding, the percentages do not add up to 100. Justices occasionally author a separate opinion that concurs in part and dissents in part. For this and other tables, each such vote has been categorized as either a dissent or a concurrence according to the following guidelines. If a justice's opinion dissented from the result on one or more issues, it was classified as a dissent. If the opinion concurred with the result on all issues but disputed the majority's reasoning on one or more issues, it was classified as a concurrence.

As explained in this post's introduction, certain justices were not on the court for the entire term, and it is not possible to determine precisely when they began, or ceased, to participate in decisions. Consequently, while the totals are accurate for each of the four columns in this table, I have not disaggregated the votes in individual columns (for example, I have not tried to establish how many decisions in the first column were 7-0 and how many were 6-0 or 5-0).
